

MEDIA ALERT FOR THIS TUESDAY, APRIL 29TH

OFFICIAL GROUNDBREAKING AT THE HAMPTON BUSINESS DISTRICT

Suffolk County Executive Steven Bellone and Southampton Town Supervisor Anna Throne-Holst to Join Rechler Equity Partners at Gabreski Airport for Groundbreaking Ceremony

What: Rechler Equity Partners, the largest owner and operator of commercial real estate on Long Island, will mark the commencement of development at the planned 440,000-square-foot, nine-building Hampton Business District, located at Gabreski Airport in Westhampton Beach. Gregg and Mitchell Rechler of Rechler Equity Partners will be joined by dignitaries who will highlight the important economic contributions the Hampton Business District will bring to the region.

When: Tuesday, April 29, at 10:30 a.m. — Rain or shine!

Where: Gabreski Airport, Westhampton Beach, New York

Who: Suffolk County Executive Steven Bellone; Southampton Town Supervisor Anna Throne-Holst; and Rechler Equity Managing Partners Mitchell Rechler and Gregg Rechler.

Why: The Hampton Business District at Gabreski had its genesis back in the 1970s. Now, several decades later, the dream is becoming a reality as Rechler Equity Partners breaks ground on this ambitious, world-class business park. Chosen by Suffolk County to develop the Hampton Business District, Rechler Equity has more than half a century of Long Island development and leadership experience, including industrial, manufacturing, distribution, office and healthcare related projects.
